We have a name!

It was a close vote. At the November meeting the Club had a choice of 13 names to pick from for our Newsletter. They ranked them in order of preference and the name that weighed in was Schnauzer Tales, followed closely by Schnauzer Bits and Bytes and Schnews. Special thanks to everyone submitted a suggestion.

30 People Joined the Rat Race!

If there was ever any doubt that a 16 inch at the shoulder dog could fit through a 9 inch opening, Benji Hinde and Harley Donnely-Vaske proved it could be done and be done quickly.

The Earth Dog Introduction given by Anne Brodie and Sandy Trzos at the JEFFCO Fairgrounds on Sunday, November 19, was a hoot!

Sophia Hartshorn and Madison Plomondon were naturals. After watching TK Beamer dive into the tunnel and work the rats like a mad demon, they both sped through the tunnels and barked at the rats like pros. Not to be out done Sammy Luzovich joined in on the barking. Some of the rest of the dogs took a bit of coaxing and out right bribery to get them to enter the tunnels.

One dog in particular, I won't name any names, simply looked up at their human as if to say, "Uh you must have me confused with a terrier."

Don't miss out on the upcoming Events or meetings.

In the Trenches by Linda Knilans

Mo Donnelly and Nicky ran their hearts out at the agility show held on November 18 and 19 at the JEFFCO Fairgrounds. They double Q'd, (qualified in both standard and jumpers course in a single day), both days and gained a bunch of speed points towards their Master Agility Championship, (MACH).

They made it look soooo easy!
